

Christchurch Mansion Ipswich

Colchester + Ipswich Museums

One of Suffolk's most treasured buildings, this beautiful Tudor mansion is the jewel in the crown of Ipswich's historic past, boasting over 500 years of history.

Explore the period rooms from the Tudor kitchen to the sumptuous Georgian saloon and the beautifully detailed Victorian wing.

Gaze at the fine collection of art from Suffolk artists including the biggest collection of Thomas Gainsborough and John Constable paintings outside of London.

During the year, particularly during school holiday times, Christchurch Mansion runs a range of activity and participation sessions which include: art & craft skills, storytelling, stop motion animation skills, quiz trails and live interpretation.

Details of these activities can be found on their website.

Learning Credits

- If you are visiting Christchurch Mansion, but not participating in any of the holiday activities, present your Passport to Learning as you leave and you will receive a token. Take this token into school where 30 minutes of CU Learning can be awarded.
- Up to 2 hours of CU Learning will be awarded for an activity and participation session.
