

Framlingham Castle Framlingham

Framlingham Castle is a magnificent 12th century fortress with a long and colourful past which makes a fascinating family day out in Suffolk.

The castle was once the refuge of Mary Tudor before she became Queen in 1553 and visitors can now explore over 800 years of life at Framlingham Castle.

Embark on a self-guided journey of discovery with our themed trails and lively audio tour and explore the Mere and the wall-walk with its spectacular views over the surrounding landscape.

Younger audiences will enjoy a variety of themed games and interactives.

Learning Credits

- If you are visiting Framlingham Castle and take part in the self-guided tour you will be awarded 2 hours of CU Learning Credits.

Further information

www.english-heritage.org.uk/visit/places/framlingham-castle