

Gainsborough's House Sudbury

Gainsborough's House is a museum and art gallery at the birthplace of artist Thomas Gainsborough. They offer a great range of children's activities and children participating in the activities listed here will be able to collect stamps in their Passport to Learning.

Tom's Tuesdays

During half terms and holidays there are family drop-in activities where children have the opportunity to experience activities involving printmaking, painting, drawing, designing, experimenting and exploring.

Family Activities and Events

The museum also offers a programme of family events and this is published on their website.

Gainsborough's House Travelling Camera Obscura

The Camera Obscura visits a variety of countryside sites and gives the opportunity to explore the world inside a camera. Experiment with light and get creative. Details of where the Camera Obscura is appearing can be found on the website.

Learning Credits

- Tom's Tuesdays: 1.5 hours of CU Learning Credits
- Camera Obscura: 1 hour of CU Learning Credit
- Family Activities: 1 hour of CU Learning Credit
