

Ickworth Bury St Edmunds

Ickworth House is a country house near Bury St Edmunds, Suffolk, England. It is a neoclassical building set in parkland. The house was the residence of the Marquess of Bristol before being sold to the National Trust in 1998.

They offer a range of Learning Activities and Experiences, with things to see and do throughout the year and details of all these activities can be found on their website.

Learning Credits

CU Learners will receive:

- 1 hour of CU Learning for a General Visit
- 1.5 hours of CU Learning for a Daily Tour (which includes time for General Visit too)
- 1 additional hour of CU Learning for craft and other organised activities

Further information

www.nationaltrust.org.uk/ickworth